DETAILED ACTION

Acknowledgment

1. Acknowledgment is made that applicant's Amendment, filed on 29 October 2002, has been entered. Upon entrance of the Amendment, claims 1, 12 and 16 were amended. Claims 1-20 are now pending in the current application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-3, 5-8, 11-18 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Meissner et al. (5936984) in view of Peressini (6418156). Meissner et al. teach a laser rod 101, having a first and second end, a first and second flanged endcap 103, 105, and an entire length operatively connected to their respective end. Meissner et al. fail to teach that the laser rod is doped, tapered and polished. Peressini teach the laser rod is doped, tapered along the entire length see Fig. 11, col. 14, lines 15-38 and col. 23, lines 2-65. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to employ the teaching of Peressini to the laser rod of Meissner to better control the lasing mode within the gain medium, see col. 23, line 66-col. 24, line 5.

In regard to claims 2-3, 6 and 8, Peressini teach all stated limitations, see Fig. 11.

In regard to claims 5, 12-15, Meissner et al. teach all stated limitations, see cols. 4-7.

In regard to claims 7 and 11, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to optimize the taper value and/or diameter of the laser rod, since has been held that were the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

In regard to claims 16-18 and 20, the method of forming the device is rejected under the same grounds of the device itself, since the device made would be formed by the method.

4. Claims 4, 9, 10 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Meissner et al. (5936984) and Peressini (6418156) as applied to claims 1-3, 5-8, 11-18 and 20 above, and further in view of Tang (6263007). Meissner et al. and Peressini teach all the stated limitations except for the tapered laser rod being narrowest at about half the distance between the ends of the laser rod. Instead Peressini teach the shape of laser rod may be flat and parallel, or flat and non-parallel, or any other configuration that defines a suitable pump radiation distribution within the gain medium, see col. 7, lines 27-31. Tang teaches any other configurations that defines a suitable pump radiation distribution within the gain medium, one being a tapered laser rod being narrowest at about half the distance between the ends of the laser rod, see Fig. 9. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use any of the configurations of Tang with the laser rod of Peressini, since Peressini encourage other configuration that defines a suitable pump radiation distribution within the gain medium, see col. 7, lines 27-48.

In regard to claims 9, 10 and 19, see corresponding claim rejections above.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-20 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
